Help Rebuild Haiti through rural economic development!

Kiskeya Guest House

Petite-Rivièrè, Leogane (Haiti)

Exceptional heartwarming service
Where guests are treated as family!
About us

Kiskeya Guest House is an environmentally friendly guest house constructed using earth bag technology and powered by solar energy. Located in the heart of Kiskeya Aqua Ferme, a 10-acre organic farm in rural Petite-Rivière in Leogane, we provide a serene setting for researchers, volunteer tourists, Diaspora expatriates and others seeking to visit Haiti while contributing to its rebuilding efforts. Our mission is to provide you with exceptional heartwarming service and treat you as family!

About Leogane

Leogane is a peaceful and historical coastal town located 29 km west of Port-Au-Prince. It is the birth place of the Taino queen Anacaona who ruled along with her husband Caonabo before the arrival of Christopher Columbus. It is also the birth place of Claire Heureuse, the wife of Haiti’s Emperor Jean-Jacques Dessalines. Leogane has miles of beaches to enjoy. The most visited tourist site in Haiti is the birth place of queen Anacaona, the grotte Anacaona (cave network). Leogane also has Grotte Belloc, the most beautiful and most extensive cave network in Haiti. In addition, Leogane is best known for its rara, a cultural music festival that begins from Lent to Good Friday. Its Patron is Saint Rose de Lima.

Volunteer Placement

Kiskeya Guest House works volunteer tourists and guests to find ideal opportunities for them to share their skills with the people of Leogane. Lay volunteers, carpenters, furniture makers, organic farmers, teachers, college students, medical professionals and artisans will find immense opportunities to help Haiti rebuild.

Rediscover yourself!

Tired of the rat race, over stressed, contemplating a career change, going through midlife crisis or wanting to bring meaning in this life’s journey? Come find yourself while staying at our guest house. You will decompress by doing gardening work or caring for our animals as well as connect with the most resilient people on the planet. Come experience the warmth, the strength, the smile and the aspiration of the people you will meet despite all their adversities. Through them, you will surely find your path!

Cultural exchange

Whether traveling alone or in groups, the cultural exchange program allows individuals interested in acquiring in depth knowledge of the Haitian culture by living among the community with the opportunity of learning or expanding on the Haitian Creole language.

Cave exploration

The town of Leogane boasts the most beautiful and extensive cave network in Haiti. The cave of Belloc is located 20 km between Leogane and Jacmel at a cliff of 200 meters. It has a constant temperature of 17 degree Celsius. The second cave system in Leogane is the Anacaona cave network is the most visited site in Leogane where visitors signs their names on the walls as a respect to Queen Anacaona.
